

Catherine's Cause, Catherine Masha, R.N., Katy, TX

Catherine Masha, R.N., received her B.S. in Nursing from the University of Texas at Austin. She has worked in many nursing specialties including Intensive Care, Emergency, Oncology, and Home Health since 1986. Catherine founded her company Catherine's Cause as a result of her children's metabolic and nutritional deficiencies. Catherine consults with families to design and implement plans that target their individual needs.

Catherine works extensively with children. She helps both children and adults to develop diet and supplement plans to address chronic infections and other diseases. She has experience with autism and other chronic disease issues, including challenging infections. Catherine helps people to address the underlying causes of infection, including nutritional support, detoxification and strengthening the immune system to minimize recurring infections.

Catherine provides phone consultations and can work with people remotely over the phone. She has access to lab testing resources and can order tests for her remote clients. Catherine has experience with many natural medicinal products, including the Bio-Botanical Research line of professional grade herbal products for broad-spectrum antimicrobial and and immune support.

To schedule a phone consultation with Catherine, please call (281) 492-6267.
