

Dr. Kimberly Iller, N.D. , L.Ac., Seattle, WA

Dr. Kim Iller, N.D., L.Ac., holds a doctorate in Naturopathic Medicine and a Masters of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine from Bastyr University and is licensed in the State of Washington. She is certified in Advanced I.V. Micronutrient Therapy and Chelation Therapy. She specializes in infections, naturopathy, acupuncture, and micronutrient IV therapy. She has been practicing for 3 years.

90% of the patients seen by Dr. Iller are infectious disease cases. She specializes in Lyme Disease and co-infections. Dr. Iller's treatment modalities include herbs, vitamin and mineral supplementation, topical natural therapies, acupuncture, IV micro-nutrient therapy and life style counseling. She also prescribes pharmaceuticals if needed, usually in addition to other natural remedies.

Dr. Iller provides phone consultations after an initial in person visit, and every third visit must be in person. She collaborates with Medical Doctors (MDs) and other Naturopaths as part of her practice. This unique alliance provides patients the benefits of both mainstream allopathic medicine and naturopathic medicine, offering a new level of treatment choices and personalized care.
